تسعى وزارة التربية و التعليم إلى الارتقاء بمستوى التحصيل للطلبة بشكل عام ، وتولي تحصيل طلبة الثانوية العامة اهتماما خاصا ؛ فقد شرعت الوزارة منذ سنوات في تقديم الدروس المصورة لهم عبر بوابة روافد التعليمية والإذاعة التعليمية ، كما قدمت في السنوات الماضية نماذج تدريبية من الاختبارات لتساعد الطلبة على الاستذكار الجيد وتحقيق أعلى الدرجات ، ومواصلة لهذه الجهود تقدم الوزارة اليوم هذا الجهد المتمثل في تصنيف أسئلة اختبارات الثانوية العامة للسنوات السابقة وفق الموضوعات المقررة ؛ لتسهل للطلاب عملية المراجعة واختبار نفسه بنفسه بالإضافة إلى تدريب الطالب على كيفية التعامل مع أسئلة الاختبار، خاصة وأن طبيعة الدوام الجزئي لطلبة الثانوية العامة التي فرضتها ظروف الجائحة لم تتح للطلبة خوض غمار الاختبارات المدرسية التي كانت تسهم في تدريب الطالب على كيفية التعامل مع الاختبار النهائي .

وقد روعي في هذا التصنيف أن يقتصر على الموضوعات المقررة لهذا العام، فقد صنفت الأسئلة وفق الموضوعات الواردة في الرزم التعليمية في المباحث التي صدرت لها الرزم، أما بقية المباحث فقد تم الاعتماد على النشرة المعدلة للموضوعات المقررة التي أصدرتها الوزارة؛ وذلك سعيا من الوزارة إلى تركيز جهد الطالب على هذه الموضوعات وعدم إرهاقه، كما حرصت فرق إعداد هذه المادة على إلحاق الإجابات النموذجية بها لمساعدة الطالب في تقييم أدائه بعد مراجعة كل مبحث.

والوزارة إذ تقدم لطلبتنا الأعزاء هذا العمل لترجو من الله أن يوفقهم لتحقيق ما يصبون من مراتب عليا تؤهلهم ليكونوا حملة مشعل البناء في وطننا الغالي فلسطين.

والله الموفق وهو الهادي إلى سواء السبيل،،،

Reading Comprehension

(Text 1) Suggested exercises from Al Wosta enrichment material

1) Read the text and do the tasks below:

Hi everyone

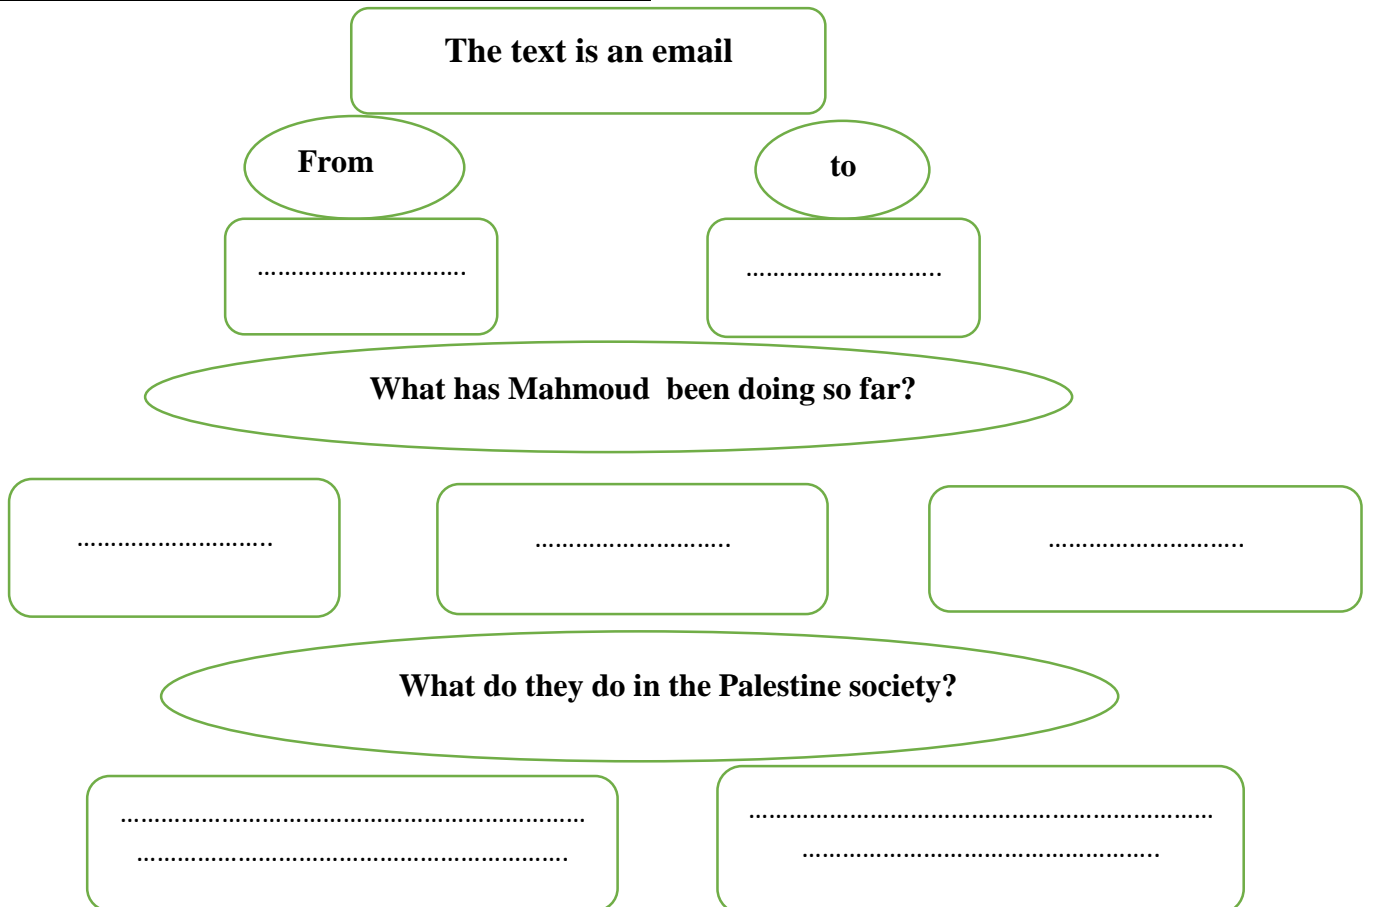

Well, the first week has nearly passed, with no real problems to tell you about so far. It hasn't been easy though. So many things are different from what I'm used to. There's the language, for one thing. As you know, I've been studying English for many years, but this is like being a beginner all over again. It seems as if everyone is speaking a different language from the one I studied at school! Still I'm beginning to get used to hearing English all around me. Lectures don't start till next week, so this week has been a time of settling in: finding my way around, meeting people on the same course, joining clubs and societies and so on. There's actually a Palestine Society (which I joined of course). They have guest speakers and discussion groups, organize cultural events and even food evenings, so at least I'll have some connection with home. I've joined two other clubs as well.

I hope you're all well . I'll write again soon

Love

Mahmoud

Text 2: Stepping outside your comfort zone2) Read the text and do the tasks below :

Your comfort zone is, as the name suggests, the area where you feel comfortable. We all have one, whether we know or not: it's the set of routines and known abilities that make us feel safe because we are confident that we can manage and are unlikely to be challenged by anything unexpected or worrying. Obviously staying inside your comfort zone has many benefits, especially at times when you are feeling under stress.

On the other hand, we are often told in "self-help books" that it's a good idea to do things that are outside our comfort zone. In fact, many studies have shown that an important factor in helping people feel positive about themselves is the feeling that they are developing and making progress in their lives. You won't reach your full potential if you only do what you know you are able to do. We all want to improve ourselves, for example by learning something new, becoming more creative or getting fit.

Unfortunately, people often get stuck in their comfort zones and don't feel able to try different things. There are various possible reasons for this. They may be afraid of failing or unsure how to begin. Many people think, "This is the way I am and I'll never change", using this as an excuse for not trying something new. Whatever the reason may be, it's sometimes necessary to force yourself to do something you'd rather not do. Once you've made the effort, though, the door to new experiences will be open and you'll probably wonder why you thought it was a problem.

Reading comprehension (External :Exam 9-12-2017 دورة ثالثة الفرع الأدبي)

Read the text about ' comfort zone'. Then answer the questions below:

The comfort zone, as defined by Lifehacker, is a "behavioral space where your activities and behaviors fit a routine and pattern that minimizes stress and risk" —the operative words here being stress and risk. In our comfort zone, there is a sense of familiarity, security and certainty. When we step outside of our comfort zone, we're taking a risk, and opening ourselves up to the possibility of stress and anxiety.

We've come to see stress as a dirty word —and for good reason —but a little bit of healthy stress can actually act as a stimulus for growth and provide a powerful motivation to act.

According to one theory, the term comfort zone originated in reference to the temperature zone (67 to 78 degrees) where we're most comfortable, and feel neither hot nor cold. Psychologically, our comfort zone is the place we're most at home.

While staying in your comfort zone can result in consistent, steady performance, stepping out of your comfort zone into a new and challenging task can create the conditions for optimal performance.

In an increasingly competitive, cautious and accelerated world, those who are willing to take risks, step out of their comfort zone and into the discomfort of uncertainty will be those who will reap the biggest rewards.

A. Answer the following questions:

1. What do we have in our comfort zone?

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

2. Mention what happens when we step out of our comfort zone?

a. _____

b. _____

B. Complete the following sentences:

1. Temperature zone is _____ where _____

2. According to the writer our world today is:

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

Text (1) Exam (17-6-2019 دورة أولى للفرع المهني)Read the text and do the tasks below:*Tip 1:

It's so easy to make excuses and find ways to avoid the thing you know you should be doing. Experts advise us to break this habit by becoming aware of our own excuses. The 'right time' to do something never arrives. The best time to do something is usually now. Once you've got started, you'll probably find that it wasn't as hard as you thought.

Tip 2:

It's important to make yourself a 'to do' list or exam revision timetable, but remember that listing things isn't the same as doing them. Once you've worked out what needs to be done, decide which tasks have the highest priority and which can be left till later.

Tip 3 :

You can't always make your brain work 'on demand'. Don't spend too long time on one task, and learn to recognize when you're slowing down. Divide large tasks into smaller parts that are easier to manage, and reward yourself for completing them by doing something fun.

Tip 4:

Even if you are under stress, there is no point making yourself ill _ that will just make the pressure worse. Make sure you remember to eat regularly and healthily, and, even though it may be hard, try to get enough sleep.

1: Match the headings with the tips above:A: First things first*B: One step at a time*C: Just do it .*D: Look after yourself*2: Answer the following questions :*1-What do experts advise us to do in order to break the habit of making excuses ?

2-What should you take into consideration when working out what needs to be done ?

3-How should you look after yourself when you are under stress?a.....*b.....*3-Decide whether the following sentences are True(T) or False(F) :*1-The best time to do something is when the right time arrives to do it . ()*2-It is advisable to spend too much time on one task . ()*3-Dividing large tasks helps in achieving them more easily . ()

4-It's easy to get enough sleep when you are under stress . ()

4-Complete the following sentences :

1-After completing large tasks , you shouldby

5-What do the following pronouns refer to :

1- you (Tip 1).....

2- them(Tip 2).....

3- that (Tip 3).....

4- it (Tip 4).....

6-Decide which tip is the best for each student:

	Students' comments	Tip
a.	There is so much to do that it gets confusing and I don't know where to start
b.	I sometimes think it's all too hard and want to give up
c.	I get worried and my head starts hurting
d.	I always seem to find other things to do and time just runs out

Text (2) Exam (10-6-2017 الدورة الأولى الفرع الأدبي

1) Read the text and do the tasks below:

The results of a new poll show that financial problems have taken over from the environment as the main concern for young people. The survey asked 12.000 people aged between 14 and 18 what they were most worried about. The clear winner was "finding a job", while the environment was only the seventh greatest worry. This compares with similar polls in the last fifteen years, when environmental worries came first.

One of the poll's organizers commented that the results demonstrated a clear change in attitude. " It's not just that getting a job is the main worry," he said. "Also included in the top six worries were getting into debt (6th) and passing exams (4th).I'm convinced that there's a connection. Because of changes in the job market, there is more and more pressure on young people nowadays to pass exams and go on to university in the hope of finding a good job. And rising university fees make it inevitable that many students graduate from university with huge debts. Other concerns mentioned by large numbers of young people also tended to be personal rather than social, including worries about relationships (2nd), health(3rd) and fitting in with peers(4th)

Annette Coleman, director of the Green Earth organization, said yesterday that she was disappointed, but not surprised, at the fall in the number of young people concerned about the environment.

Reading comprehension :Text 1(Exam 10-8-2020 دورة ثمانية الفروع المهنية والشرعية)

Read the text and do the tasks below:

A:.....

One day , I noticed that some bananas , which I had bought about a week before , were going brown . ‘Let’s make some banana cake ‘ I said to my six- year –old daughter , Fatima . It took quite a long time ,but it kept Fatima busy and we had fun making them . When they were done , we tried one and it was actually delicious , so I suggested one to Mr Aziz , the old man who lives next door . When Mr Aziz opened the door, before I could say a word , Fatima told him :We had some old bananas that were going bad , so instead of throwing them away we made them into a cake for you . I hope you like it .

B:.....

A couple of years ago , I was talking to an old school friend that I’d kept in touch with when she mentioned another person called Jane , who had been in the same class as us . Neither of us had heard from her, or even thought about her , for over ten years . I didn’t give the conversation another thought until three days later , when I was working in London for two days . As I was travelling to the office , I saw a women on the train . Our eyes met and we seemed to recognize each other .’Excuse me ‘ she said ‘but are you Suzan ?’ It was , of course , Jane . As it turned out , she was only visiting London for a few days and about to return to Italy , where she had lived for over five years .

C:.....

About three or four times a year , a company that I do some work for organizes a day of meeting for those of us that work from home . They put us up in a hotel and it’s a good chance for colleagues who don’t meet that often to catch up with each other . The last time this happened, I arrived at the hotel quite late and went straight to bed .The next morning , I walked into the breakfast room and saw my old colleague Dan , a short man with a bald head , standing with his back to me . ‘Good morning , Dan’ I said , patting him on the head in a friendly way . Unfortunately , the man who turned to face me wasn’t Dan at all , but a complete stranger . To make things worse , he was a rather formal man who didn’t see the funny side of the situation . ‘ I’m sorry to say that you may have made an error ,’ he said .

Reading comprehension :Text (2) Exam (الدورة الأولى أدبي 2020-12 -)

Read the text and do the tasks below :

We often hear people say " It's a small world, isn't it? It's usually when they've just experienced one of those strange coincidences that seem to happen in nearly everyone's lives. You know the kind of thing: you're on holiday in another country and you run into a person you know from home, even though neither of you knew that the other was going there too.

People often think experiences like this are evidence of something mysterious happening, some kind of hidden plan outside our knowledge. The scientific explanation is less exciting, and perhaps that's why some people are reluctant to accept it. Coincidences are events that unexpectedly happen at the same time for no clear reason, or finding an unexpected connection between seemingly random things or people. A very common example of the latter is talking to a complete stranger and finding that you have the same birthday. What are the chances of that happening?

Actually, the chances are better than you might think, and there's a mathematical way to prove it. It has been calculated that the number of people you need to have a 50% chance of two of them sharing a birthday is 23. And when there are 48 people in a room, the probability goes up to 95%. To put it another way, if there are only 50 people reading these words (and I hope there are more !), one of them will almost certainly have the same birthday as me .

The other part of the scientific explanation for coincidences is simply that there are so many events in people's lives. Just think of the number of people that you have had any kind of connection with during your life. There are probably over 10,000, and the older you get, the more there will be. If you are the kind of person who talks to strangers, you will definitely come across coincidences. Basically, when you think about how complex our lives are, especially nowadays with the internet, the only surprising thing is that coincidences don't happen more often.

A: Answer the following questions :

1-What do people think of coincidences ?

2-What two definitions of "coincidences" does the writer give ?

3-How does the writer prove coincidences scientifically ?

Text (2)(دورة أولى الفرع الأدبي 2020-6-6 Exam)

Read the text and answer the questions below:

It isn't hard to explain why parents, teachers and older people in general get so concerned about the negative effects of young people's use of communications technology. They may be motivated by a wish to protect their children from harm or to control them, but throughout history older generations have always tried to put limits on the behavior of the young.

The only difference now is that the Internet is such a powerful force, and older people generally don't really understand this new world of social media and instant communication, so they're unable to control it. And the situation is changing so fast that the gap in their knowledge is widening all the time.

In a similar way, governments, even in democratic countries, like to put limits on people's behavior. After all, it's a large part of what governments are about. They may have more technological knowledge than the average parent, but the spread of social media sites and communications apps like Twitter and WhatsApp is making it harder and harder for them to control what their citizens are saying and doing.

Clearly, this isn't always a positive trend, but what we can say for sure is that new information and communications technologies are a force for social change and economic development, especially in poorer countries without a reliable traditional phone network. The World Bank has calculated that in countries like this, a 10% increase in high-speed Internet connections leads to a 1.3% increase in economic growth. It is, they say, 'the single most powerful way to extend economic opportunities and services to millions of people, especially in remote areas'.

A recent headline on the BBC website asked: "Could Ramallah become an Arab World technology hub?" The article went on to show how young Palestinians are starting small technology companies that could help the Palestinian economy to break free from restrictions placed on it by the Israeli occupation. As one interviewee explains: 'this is what is good about technology: it breaks the borders. A person with a laptop can work in the worst situations; he can work from his home and interact with the global community, without a passport and despite the occupation. It is limitless.

Read the following text the do the tasks below :

Social media is a vital aspect of teenagers' and children's social and creative lives . They use social media to have fun , make and maintain friendships , share interests , explode identities and develop relationships with families . It's an extension of their offline and face to face interactions.

Social media can connect children and teenagers to online global communities based on shared interests . These might be support networks –for example , for young people with disability or medical conditions , teenagers who are same , or children from particular cultural backgrounds.

Social networking has also changed the way kids learn . They are always interacting and giving feedback to one other , than from adults . Learning can now come from newer sources and not just their parents or teachers . However , social media sites can also mark risk . The most well-known downside is the addiction they create . This addiction disrupts their various activities . Some of the kids realize that they are wasting a lot of time on social sites and that affects their mood negatively . They end up wasting a substantial amount of time every day , resulting in lack of concentration and poor grades in school . Not less dangerously , students mostly use slang words or shortened forms of words on social networking sites . This reduces their command over the language and their creativity skills .

Overusing social media can directly impact physical health . This , of course is usually associated with the way you use . You can get eyestrain from staring for too long . Besides , if you're staying up too late posting on Twitter or Facebook , you may be losing valuable sleep.

..... The benefits of the internet are so extensive that it has positively changed human society in every department. It has made life a lot easier by making information more accessible to all and creating connections with different people all around the world. For many people, the internet has become the fuel of their daily life.

..... However, it has also led to a lot of people to spend too much time in front of the computer, so much that it becomes the center of their lives. This can lead an internet addiction. It is a mental condition characterized by excessive use of the internet, usually causing detriment to the user. internet addiction is also known by numerous other terms, including problematic internet use, internet overuse and compulsive internet use.

..... Studies show that internet addiction is quite common among people who are suffering from anxiety and depression. Their lack of emotional support means they turn to the internet to fill this need. Even being stressed and unhappy can contribute greatly to the development of a computer or internet addiction. There are also those who have a history of other types of addiction such as addiction to alcohol, drugs and gambling. People who are overly shy and cannot easily relate to their peers are also at a higher risk of developing a computer or internet addiction.

..... Internet addiction can be a significant threat to one's health and social wellbeing. The short-term effects of an online addiction include unfinished tasks and forgotten responsibilities. short-term effects are seen more in the psychical symptoms such as backache, neck pain, and vision problems from staring at the screen. internet addiction also enforces antisocial behavior. It can lead to the inability to communicate in the real world by depriving the addict of the daily practices involved with the interpersonal communication. This, of course, cripple's one's inability to maintain a healthy social life.

Read the text about the internet and answer the questions below

Spending your free time on the Internet can be fun. You can chat ,share photos with friends ,and play online games . But some people are addicted to the Internet . They just can't turn it off.

Being online for many hours at a time does not mean you have a problem . The Internet is very useful Online ,you can pay your bills ,buy clothes ,and read the news . There are many good reasons to spend time online .

However ,people with an Internet addiction are online too much . They don't spend time with their friends and families . Instead , they spend their time chatting with their Internet friends ,people they have never met in real life . Some also play online games all day or night . Some people with Internet addictions even leave their jobs so they can spend even more time online

People with Internet addictions don't just go online to shop ,have fun , or to do work . People who have this problem often go online because they want to escape the stress and problems in their lives . Many Internet addicts stop caring about their real lives , and focus only on their online lives .

One way Internet addicts can get help is by using special software . This software controls how much time someone can spend online . It tells the computer to turn off the internet after a certain amount time .This helps people focus on real life . The software's goal is to teach people to use the Internet for good reasons and not just escape .

2020 دورة اولى (Text1)

1) Read the text about the word of work and complete the tasks below:

A survey of 3.000 workers in the UK has revealed the top ten dream jobs. Being dream jobs, a certain amount of fantasy is involved, but what is the reality behind the dream ? We asked some professionals what doing was really like .

1 Airline pilot, James Hutchings ' They didn't really make this the first choice , did they ? I'm not sure my job is what people were thinking of. They probably wanted to be jet fighter pilots . The work isn't as exciting as people think. You don't see the world, just the insides of airports. There isn't much job security either. There are lots of ways you could lose your job. It suits me at the moment because I'm young and single, but I don't want to be still doing it in ten years time.

2 TV and theatre actor Jane Nicholson : ' there's nothing I'd rather do. The feeling you get is like nothing else and it outweighs the many negatives like the pressure , the stage fright and the long periods without work. Unless you are a big star, you never know where the next job is going to come from.

3 Pianist and singer Amina Kureishi: ' Almost everyone can become a musician, but the trick is to make a living from it. I mean there are singers, there are good singers, and there are successful singers, but they are three different things. For most of us , it's a life of late nights , long hours practicing, travelling from place to place, being paid just enough to put food on the table. The majority of professional musicians need other incomes, usually from teaching.

4 Charity worker, Ben Harper : ' I can understand why this work comes so high in the list . It's the job satisfaction, isn't it ? A lot of people probably feel they'd rather do something to help others than working for a company making money for someone else. But the thing is that for most charity workers , it's just an office job. Even non profit organizations have to be run like businesses these days. The people at the top are paid well, but those lower down are often volunteers.

A: Read the text quickly and match the jobs with each paragraph :

دورة ثانية ٢٠١٩ Reading comprehension Text 2

1 Read the text and answer the questions below:

Most schools claim to prepare students for the world of work, but Milton Secondary School takes the claim very seriously. Before they even join the school, future pupils get an informal interview at their primary school to discuss their hope and preferences for the future.

The emphasis on employment continues during the first two years at Milton and then in the third year all pupils spend a day doing work experience at a local company. Two years later, this becomes a whole week spent with a company, usually arranged by the students themselves.

Throughout their secondary education, students have professional careers advice which costs the school over £30,000 a year. Head teacher Harriet Downs believes it's worth it. 'Teachers aren't trained as careers advisers,' she says, " so we bring in professional help. It's part of coordinated program that aims to make students aware of the employment options available, and how to make the most of them. It's too late to start talking about work in their final year.

Text 2 B: Suggested Material3) Read the text and answer the questions below:

In a speech yesterday, the Education Minister advised students to avoid arts subjects and choose science or maths if they want to improve their job prospects. In the past, he said, arts subjects like languages and history were chosen by students who didn't have a clear idea of what they wanted to do in the future. He explained that this was because of feeling that they involved skills that were useful for many different jobs, but he questioned whether this was still true: 'Nowadays, we know differently. The best subjects for keeping your options open are ones like science, technology and engineering.

It quickly became clear that the minister's words were controversial, with teachers and university heads reacting strongly to his advice. 'Of course, science and technology are important,' said one, 'but it would be completely wrong to neglect the arts. They provide important skills and an understanding of the world and people in general. Also, the economy depends as much on creativity as on technical knowledge'.

A: Answer the following questions:

1. How can students improve their job prospects, according to the minister's speech?
2. What was the reason for choosing arts subjects by students in the past?

Reading comprehension :Text 1 (Exam ٢٠١٦ دورة ثانية)1-Read the article about business - start ups and complete the tasks below .

Mustafa Jawad, the 23-year old head of an online graphic design company was always good at art and languages, and when he finished school, everyone advised him to study English at university. Instead, he taught himself how to programme and started making his own software programmes. His first attempt was a game, which was so popular with his fellow students that he decided starting his own company might be a real possibility.

His big breakthrough came when he attended a 'start-up weekend' in Ramallah. He managed to get a small amount of financial support which gave him the time to develop more ideas. Perhaps more importantly, he met other business people, both Palestinians and from other countries and learnt a lot about the practical side of running a business and how to get his products noticed.

Mustafa is currently working on a programme that makes teaching of chemistry at schools more fun. He has already had interest from within Palestine and from other countries in the Arab World.

Like a lot of other Palestinian business people, he wants to do something positive to help his country, but he stresses that his company isn't a humanitarian operation. 'It's a business,' he says 'and the aim is to get good returns on the investment.

One way he believes he can help is to pass on what he's learnt to others even younger than he is. 'I learnt a lot from that start-up weekend. When I go to the next one, I hope I'll learn more, but I'll also be able to advise others.

Reading comprehension Text 2 دورة ثالثة ٢٠١٨

Read the text out two business people then do the tasks below: (25 points)

Seventeen-year-old Anita Simons started out making jewelry for friends and now sells it to top fashion shops and direct to the public via her online company. She says:

‘One of the most important things I've had to learn to do is decide the most effective way of spending money. You need to work out the financial figures and have them checked by someone who understands money. Luckily my parents are both in business themselves, so they advised me to spend more on marketing, less on product development, or whatever. Wherever it comes from, getting good advice is very important.’

Hashem Ali is the nineteen-year-old owner of a company that makes online music videos His top tips:

‘I think initially the key thing is to understand the market. Work out who your potential customers are, who your competitors are, what they offer and how you could do it better. It's easy these days to get professional help with this kind of market research. After that, just be determined and don't give up if things get difficult (which they almost certainly will at some point). Starting and running a business is hard work. If you think it's only going to be a nine-to-five job, you should go and do something else.’

A: Complete the table with missing information from the text: (10 points)

Are today's young stars sports overpaid? It's an opinion you'll often hear repeated, especially in the world of football. The figures are astonishing and the situation makes some people very angry. But those who are infuriated by it often forget what players have to do to get to the top, and the risks involved. A new book by Wayne Barton tells the story of some of those who fell on the way up. There are many young men who achieved the dream of playing for the famous club Manchester United, but only had short careers, often because of injuries. Take the story of Giuliano Maiorana. At the age of 19, he was playing for an amateur team in Cambridge shire, England when he was noticed by one of Manchester United's many scouts, who was searching for the lower levels of football for promising young players. At first, Giuliano thought the offer for a trial world-famous Manchester club was a joke. It wasn't – only months later, he played his first match at United's home ground, Old Trafford. He still remembers the mixture of excitement and fear he felt. Unfortunately, he didn't get on well with his manager and was soon playing in the reserve team. It was in a reserve match two years later that his knee was badly damaged. Soon, at the age of 24 his career was finished. For seven years after that, he couldn't even watch football. He now works for his family's business back in Cambridge, moving furniture, and says that he now wishes he hadn't been so good at football when he was young.

.....: There are limits to how many sports can be included in the Olympic Games. In the 2012 Summer Games, there were 26, and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) have added two more for 2016 (golf and rugby sevens). There are various criteria that the IOC bases its decisions on, but the most important is probably international popularity. Sports tend to get included if they have a tradition and are played and watched by enough people in enough countries.

.....: This leads to some interesting questions. Why, for example, was baseball included from 1984, but then dropped for 2012? Although some think it is only popular in the USA, it actually has a large following in South America and Asia too. The main reason for leaving it out, according to some, is a combination of geography and politics: there is little interest in the sport in Europe, and European members are in a majority on the IOC.

.....: Of the other sports not (yet) included, one that stands out is squash. It has a long tradition and is played all over the world. It's also more obviously a real sport than some other Olympic 'sports'. In fact, it's more mysterious why certain sports are included. Take speed walking, for example, a long-standing Olympic regular. The rules say that the athletes have to have both feet in contact with the ground at all times, and must keep their legs straight. The result, to me at least, looks very silly.

.....: More importantly, it breaks one of my two personal rules for judging serious sports because it puts artificial limits on what can be done.. My other rule is that the scoring has to be objective and measurable, not a matter of opinion.

Is it possible to justify that a few young sports stars are overpaid? In most areas of business, there are a few people who earn much more than the average. These people often have skills and talents that others don't; and this is certainly true of young sports stars. Sport is always about entertainment, and sports stars create excitement and fun for viewers. Yet people are often more likely to question whether a sports stars is paid too much than they are to question the money earned by a musician or a film star..

It seems that a lot of people have forgotten that young sports stars have a very short career. In most professional sports, players retire early by their mid-30s. The career can be even shorter if they have to retire early due to injury. Furthermore, these young stars may have had few opportunities to get an education as their teenage years are spent striving to get to the top of their sport. Players have to earn what they can when they are young, since it can be difficult for them to find other careers after they retire from sport.

However, many people would argue that sports stars who are paid so much money have a duty to act responsibly because they are an inspiration to thousands of young people around the world. These people pay to watch them play, and that's partly why the young sport stars are paid so well.

A: Complete the following sentences:(6 points)

- a. In business, people who are overpaid have both _____ which _____
 b. Both sports stars and young film stars have something in common which is _____
 c. The young stars may have a little chance to continue their education because _____
 d. Sports stars have to behave responsibly because _____

B: Circle the correct answer:4 points)

1. The best title for the passage is _____.
 a. Money in sport b. How to be a star c. How to be a great musician 2 People question more about _____.
 a. musician payment b. sports stars payment c. film stars payment

1) Read the text and find answers to the questions below:

Almost everything in New York was different. We were used to living in an area where everyone knew everyone else's business, but here no one seemed to take any notice even of their neighbors. Instead of having a common culture, the people around us dressed in different styles, ate different kinds of food, even spoke different languages. It was a complete puzzle to me know they could be so various yet still call themselves Americans.

I was born in 1942, so I must have been about six or seven when the 1948 catastrophe (Nakba) happened. As a result, thousands of Palestinian families, including mine, were forced to leave Palestine. We spent a short time in Jordan before we children were taken to America by our aunt and uncle. Being so young, I saw our new life mostly as an adventure, even though I missed my friends and our old home. My parents had important work to do, but they had promised to join us as soon as possible. My older brother went through a period of anger, saying he hated everything about America.

My uncle had his job at the newspaper and was quite fluent in English, so he managed fairly well. My aunt, though, never got used to life in America. I now realize that this was mostly a choice she made herself. She refused to learn English, so she found herself stuck in the house most of the time, only going out to buy 'food like we had at home', for which she would walk miles rather than use the stores in the neighborhood. She also refused to make any changes in the tiny apartment we rented, apart from spending hours keeping it clean. This meant that it was very hot in the summer and freezing in winter. I'm sure we could have afforded a fridge, but she wouldn't have one preferring to keep things cool in the traditional way. At the time, I remember feeling annoyed with her stubborn attitude, but now, looking back, I know I should have realized what it was: a sign of her deep feeling of loss. In one way, I now understand, she was clinging to the way of life that had been taken from her. Mainly, though, her refusal to become accustomed to living in America was an expression of her conviction that our situation was only temporary.' Don't get used to all this', she often told us 'because it won't last. We'll be going home soon.'

 The writer
 Her brother
 Her uncle
 Her aunt
- 4-How does the writer justify her aunt's stubborn behavior?

5: Choose the correct answer:

'I should have realized what it was'

1. should have realized means:

- A: The writer didn't realize this earlier B: It is impossible for the writer to realize this
 2. The writer's aunt was stuck in the house most of the time because:
 A: she didn't manage to learn English. B: She refused to learn English.

2) Text 2

Read the text and do the tasks below : دورة ثانية ٢٠١٩

I enjoyed reading the article 'clinging to culture' and I'd like to add a few points of my own. It's often been observed that expatriates are more likely to show the outward signs of their culture than their fellow countrymen who stay at home. Think of Scotsmen in New Zealand who wear kilts, or English people in Spain who insist on drinking tea with milk and eating fish and chips, or 'Irish –Americans who often seem more Irish than the Irish. As a Welshman living in South America, I can understand why this happens. It's not that these people spend their time looking forward to 'going home': they are usually committed to living in the place they have chosen, they don't, for example, object to paying local taxes. They just have a need to hold on to what they see as an important part of their identities.

Language teachers will tell you that learners often find pronunciation the hardest part of a foreign language, and I'm sure there's a connection. If, say, Italian learners of English start speaking with a 'correct' accent, they feel they are becoming more English and therefore, less Italian. Unless you want to change your identity, it's hard to let go. Just as an example, listen to French people who speak almost perfect English. However good they are, it's usually impossible to mistake them for anything other than French. The accent, it seems, is always the last thing to disappear.

1: The best title for the text is :

- The advantages and disadvantages of living abroad
- There is no place like home
- Culture, language and identity

2: The writer believes that

- No one can ever speak a language perfectly
- It is natural for language learners to keep their accent.
- English is especially hard to pronounce for French people

- According to the text, it is the desire to go home that leads expatriates to cling to their culture. ()
- According to the text, language and culture are essential parts of expatriate's identities. ()

4: Complete the following :

- The writer can understand the behavior of expatriates because
- Expatriates don't object to paying local taxes because
- Italian learners of English feel they are becoming more English when
